

Mrs Mayme Estelle Kirkland

April 27, 1927 - February 9, 2021

Mrs. Mayme Estelle Kirkland 93, of Decatur, GA passed Tuesday, February 9, 2021. Graveside Services to Celebrate the Life of Mrs. Mayme Kirkland will be held Saturday February 20, 2021 1:00PM, at Resthaven Garden of Memory 2284 Candler Road, Decatur, Ga 30034.(INVITATION ONLY). Visitation Friday February 19, 2021 from 3:00PM-5:00PM. She leaves to cherish her memory: A host of relatives and many dear friends. DUE TO COVID-19 MASK ARE REQUIRED IN OUR CHAPELS Gregory B. Levett & Sons Funeral Home 4347 Flat Shoals Pkwy, Decatur, GA 30034 (404) 241-5656
Please click here to watch live stream <https://vimeo.com/513628582>

Cemetery Details

Resthaven Garden of Memory

2284 Candler Road
Decatur, GA 30032

Tribute Wall

LW

“ Linda C Williams lit a candle in memory of Mrs Mayme Estelle Kirkland

Linda C Williams - March 08, 2021 at 01:11 PM

EF

“ Sharing your sadness as you prepare to say goodbye to your love one. God comfort us through his word the Bible and the gift of prayer. With caring thoughts.

Evans family - March 02, 2021 at 08:23 PM

 Tangie Williams

“ Tangie Williams lit a candle in memory of Mrs Mayme Estelle Kirkland

Tangie Williams - March 01, 2021 at 08:17 PM

“ I remember when I was a little girl my mom would pick you up and we would go Goodwill shopping. You could shop for hours and hours Grandma. You would look through every rack piece by piece for those designer labels lol. I’m going to miss you so much Grandma. You were my comfort from the storm and just being in your presence always made me feel safe and protected. Grandma I ask that you forgive me for sometimes falling asleep on you while you would talk to me hours on end. (It would always take her a minute to realize I was sleep, because I’d wake up sometimes and she’d still be talking lol.) I was always amazed at how sharp your mind was I mean you had a memory like no other and very intelligent. You were well abreast of everything going on currently in the world of politics and could talk about past events as if it happened just yesterday with detail I could never remember. I’m so thankful God put you in my life, because I’m not sure honestly I would know what love is without knowing you. I remember when you lived in Cleveland Oh and we were visiting from Atlanta and I think it was Crystal or Bianca (I know it wasn’t me lol because I could never) who broke one of the mini lemons off of you tiny little lemon tree. You didn’t get mad like I probably would have, you just said “I’m not going to show y’all nothing else nice”. You probably meant that but the way you said it was so funny. You always had these funny cute little sly expressions that only you could make, but everyone knew what they meant lol. I remember the first time you taught me how to make coffee. You had this tiny, but cutest little kitchen ever back then with a round table and two chairs that sat up against a window. I use to love making you your coffee and sitting at that table hearing you say “ This is the best coffee ever”. Till the day you passed away all I wanted to do was comfort you and make you coffee. Your little best friend Rain is going to miss you so much. And I am truly going to miss just watching y’all two talk on and on for hours, coloring and drawing together. I would just admire the patience you had with her and how attentive you were to her every need. Where I would tell her to go sit down somewhere, you would entertain all of her shenanigan. I hope you don’t mind if I take some of your books, because I plan on one day flipping through some of those pages and seeing what you saw in them. I might be running out of space on here Grandma soon but I want you to know you were Perfect in my eyes and always will be. Rest Peacefully Grandma.

Love Always, Tangie

Tangie Williams - February 21, 2021 at 08:55 AM

LK

Aw so beautifully written, Tangie!

Linda Christian Kirkland - December 26, 2022 at 01:28 AM

“ I remember when I was a little girl my mom would pick you up and we would go thrift store shopping. You could shop for hours and hours Grandma. You would look through every rack piece by piece for though designer labels lol. For some reason I will never forget you working at a cookie shop inside the Cleveland airport, but I imagine it was because you probably always brought me cookies home. I’m going to miss you so much Grandma. You were my comfort from the storm and just being in your presence always made me feel safe and protected. Grandma I ask that you forgive me for sometimes falling asleep on you while you would talk to me hours on end. I was always amazed at how sharp your mind was I mean you had a memory like no other and very intelligent. You were well abreast of everything going on currently in the world of politics and could talk about past events as if it happened just yesterday with detail I could never remember. I’m so thankful God put you in my life, because I’m not sure honestly I would know what love is without knowing you. I remember when you lived in Cleveland Oh and we were visiting from Atlanta and I think it was Crystal or Bianca (I know it wasn’t me lol because I could never) who broke one of the mini lemons off of you tiny little lemon tree. You didn’t get mad like I probably would have, you just said “I’m not going to show y’all nothing else nice”. You probably meant that but the way you said it was so funny. You always had these funny cute little sly expressions that only you could make, but everyone knew what they meant lol. I remember the first time you taught me how to make coffee. You had this tiny, but cutest little kitchen every back then with a round table with two chairs that sat up against a window. I use to love making you your coffee and sitting at that table hearing you say “ This is the best coffee ever”. Till the day you passed away all I wanted to do was comfort you and make you coffee. Your little best friend Rain is going to miss you so much. And I am truly going to miss just watching y’all two talk on and on for hours, coloring and drawing together. I would just admire the patience you had with her and how attentive you were to her every need. Where I would tell her to go sit down somewhere, you would entertain all of her shenanigan. I hope you don’t mind if I take some of your books, because I plan on one day flipping through some of those pages and seeing what you saw in them. I might be running out of space on here soon but I want you to know you were Perfect in my eyes and always will be. Rest Peacefully Grandma.

Love Always, Tangie

Tangie Williams - February 21, 2021 at 06:59 AM