“ I remember Who I affectionately call Grandma being so kind and warm. Tasha and I would frequent her home as teenagers and the laughter we shared was priceless because she had a great sense of humor and beautiful smile that lit up a room. She was full of life and joy. I feel among the truly blessed and fortunate indeed to have known and loved her. Forever missed... forever loved.

“ Offering our sympathy and words of comfort. Jesus said "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life" (John 11:25). May God bless and strengthen you to endure this great loss.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy in the loss of your beloved family member. Words of comfort to help with the sadness and grief can be found at Psalm 147:3 which says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. And the promise at Jeremiah 31:13b "I will change their mourning into exultation. I will comfort them and give them joy instead of their grief." May these scriptures comfort you at this time of bereavement.
