“ Missy was my closest first cousin. She was like my younger sister. When she had Mikey, I had Candice. Then, she was giving birth to Lyssa in the same hospital I gave birth to Cam, two days ahead of me.
The thing I admired most about her was her ability to be present for everyone she loved. She evolved in such a way that she was able to bring God's comfort and light to all situations - even in her last days. Rest in Peace my beloved cousin. I will see you on the other side. ❤️

“ Oh Melissa, you will truly be missed. We spent so many years working alongside one another at GP and Koch, sharing not only our workdays but some of life's most meaningful moments. Experiencing our pregnancies just six months apart and then walking through the seasons of newborns, toddlers, and little girls together created a bond I will always cherish. It was truly a pleasure knowing you. I will miss your bright smile, your gentle kindness, and your sweet spirit.

I trust the family will cherish your memories of her- she loved you fiercely! I am very sorry to hear you lost your mother too young. May she rest in peace.*

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Melissa. I was fortunate to have known her for many years while working together at Georgia-Pacific and Koch Industries. We shared lots of laughs along the way and Melissa had the most beautiful smile that would brighten everyone’s day. She also threw me the best retirement party for which I am forever grateful for.
