“ Many have no idea that when we meet I immediately took you as my little sister. You made me laugh and I was drawn to your ability to be yourself unapologetically. I was fund of you because of that and I wished that I could be as brave as you. Although we didn't keep in touch as much as I'd like the love and bond that we had was not taken for granted. You will forever be my family. To Kenneth, Melvin and Victor I can only imagine how you feel because I know how much my heart aches for the loss of our dear sister. To Jay, Dominic, Santoio, and Santana I will continue to pray for you all. I almost lost my mom and the pain is unbearable. May God bless us all as we try to get through this. May the Peace of God that surprises all of our ununderstanding be with us. Family and friends
