

Melvin Clay

September 19, 2013

Melvin Clay of Duluth, GA, passed from this life on Thursday, September 19, 2013, following a courageous struggle with cancer at the age of 66 years. His transition was peaceful and free of pain. His birthplace was St. Louis, Missouri. He was preceded in death by his parents, Nannie Lee Mitchell and Charles Clay, and brother Anthony. Melvin joined the United States Marine Corps in January, 1964, and was honorably discharged in March, 1968. Following his discharge, he joined and served as a member of the Marine Reserves until March, 1970. Melvin joined the First Freewheel Baptist Church in St. Louis, Missouri as a teenager. After his move to Georgia, he became a member of Friendship Baptist Church in Duluth. He also accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. Melvin was a valued employee of AT&T, having worked for the company 41 years. He was Co-Chair of the American Portability Management LLC., and was recognized for his outstanding contributions to AT&T and the industry. Melvin was well respected at AT&T and in the telecommunications industry. Melvin Clay was a devoted and loved husband, father, brother, grandfather, friend, and leader who will be truly missed. He is survived by his beloved wife of 30 years (Rosia) Maxine; daughters Monica Henriksen (Richard), Marissa Joy, and Miranda Janelle; brothers Napoleon (Deloris) and Calvin (Catherine); sister Barbara (Randolph); grandchildren, Hunter, Chase, Montana, Morgan, Richard Jr., and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins. Home going services will be held 11AM, Monday September 30, 2013 at Friendship Baptist Church Duluth, Ga. Visitation will be held on Sunday, from 12-6, family hour 4-6pm at Gregory B. Levett Funeral Home in Lawrenceville,

Tribute Wall

“ prayers an thoughts to Maxine an family.

lanier moss - September 29, 2013 at 12:00 AM