“ Dear Melvin,
I didn't know you very well but I remember we talked earlier this year about maintenance at the park. I could instantly tell that you were a genuine person who cared deeply about the quality of your work. I wish we had more time to get to know each other better. I am sending prayers to your family. As a father I am beside myself to hear this news that was shared with me today. I know that a guy like you has already passed on all of his positive traits to his loved ones. Your character and spirit will live on for eternity.

I don't know where to start. This new life I've been forced to live without you hurts every time I open my eyes. I've loved you since they layed you in my arms at 14yrs old. You were my everything. I know you loved me too and made sure your lady friends knew. You didn't play about your momma and I sure in the hell didn't play about you son. And still don't! Justice will be served for them punks who took your life. Smiling in your face all the while they were plotting to take you life. I'm so sorry you had die alone... it's eating me up... love you son and You know I got your kids.... one at a time... we'll get there. Love and miss you son.

“ My friend, My big brother, My Dawg, My G. I love you bro. Days won't be the same no more. We talked everyday, you kept me grounded and close. You looked out for the kid and made sure things were alright. It's crazy I now have to accept you as my angel when I rather have you here with the family. We had great times together and I mean great times bro lol. Our Athens trip, our everyday rides after work to pick up lil man or Asia from school. The center hill before anything kick off sessions we had lol. You and them thumbs lol. You a real one Mel and I appreciate you accepting me and being my big brother. Rest easy brother. Until we meet up later.
