

Melvin Dwayne Johnson

June 26, 1955 - July 24, 2024

Melvin Dwayne Johnson, passed on July 24th, 2024 at the age of 69.

Melvin was born on June 26, 1955 in Sandersville, Georgia. He attended Washington County High School where he participated in various extracurricular activities. He was a standout basketball and baseball player, as well as an impressive trumpet player. He was a phenomenal student taking a great interest in numbers and graduating with honors. After graduating from high school in 1973 he then attended Paine College in Augusta, Georgia where he studied to become a pharmacist.

After moving to Atlanta, he became an extremely successful entrepreneur, owning many businesses. Furthermore, it was important to Melvin that he used his entrepreneurial expertise to support the success of other ambitious businessmen and women who looked like him. Some of his greatest passions were playing tennis and golf, traveling, along with being a cigar connoisseur. In his latest role, he served as the vice president of operations at MEI Services and Pharmalife LTC.

He was preceded in death by his mother Mary Dorothy Swint and niece Starkeda Jackson. He leaves to cherish his wife of 47 years Sandra, two sons Eric Johnson and Gerald Johnson (Sundra), grandchildren Taylor Campbell, Sydney Johnson, Zoe Johnson, and Moriah Johnson, brothers Bernard Swint (Cassandra) and Gary Swint (Augusta), and sister Clara Swint, sisters in law Cheryl Hinson, Frankie Jackson (Darius), and Diedra Spencer and mother in law Dorothy Spencer.

“ After starting at VativoRx, Melvin was the first person within the company to believe in me and my ability to grow and lead. I feel fortunate to have had the opportunity to meet and know such a wonderful person. Melvin was unique, with a big heart and an even bigger personality. He will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences to Sandra and the family. - Melissa Herrera
