“ Condolences to the family. I worked with Mel 20 yrs in the Maintenance office @USPS, NOLA. He was always smiling. He used to egg-me-on by calling me “Hummingbird “ (even though I couldn’t carry a tune in a bucket). He will truly be missed.

“ Melvin was my bowling teammate for the past 18 months. He was a very kind person: always smiling and always in a positive frame of mind. I enjoyed bowling with Melvin. We were known as "Me and Mr. Jones" and we had fun. He enjoyed bowling and he had a special love for his daughter and his granddaughters. I will miss seeing his smiling face.

“ Matthew 5:4, "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted." Our thoughts and prayers are with the family during this time of sorrow. Mr. Melvin was a kind and gentle soul as we knew him. We will miss his laughter and warm smile but knowing he left us with greater wisdom. Thank you for sharing time and space in our life. ”

Our deepest condolences.
