“ You will be missed Uncle Melvin. I'm sorry that I didn't get the chance to say good bye. I just knew that you would make it out the hospital. No more pain, no more worries and no more sorry when you're with Jesus. Soar in Heaven!

“ I remember when Melvin and I would deliver furniture in Bessemer , I was younger than he so he would never let me drive. Later in life he and I took a trip to the casino in Biloxi one Saturday and we both got broke really quickly and to turn around and come back the same day, hearted me to do all the driving then. I'll miss him very much but he will always be with me in my heart.

Wow, how quick the transition, but God knew your pain. Uncle had his challenges and did the best he could. Glad he has the chance to reconnect with his daughters Tashika & Keisha My Uncle was his own man, respected that. God heard your cry and called you home. May he keep you in his grace. I will miss you Unc! Gone to soon!

To my father: I'm glad me and my sister keesha got a chance to meet you before you departed this earth. We searched for over 29 years and never gave up looking for you. I especially enjoyed playing cards with you when we reconnected. Hug my son, your grandson, Marquez for me. Sleep well

*With love to my big brother Melvin Wilson.
From your brother Jackie Wilson
I am really going to miss you my brother. My world is more empty without you. Each sunrise and each sunset I will think of you. I take comfort that God has embraced you in Heaven. Even though I did not want you to go, there was a higher power that we answer to and you heard him call your name. Thank you for being in our lives. I will miss you forever.
Love your little brother, Jackie Wilson*

From the Beaman, Glenn and Hood families where Melvin lived for several years.... We remember him as a loving, open-hearted person. Many hours were spent talking of his love for his family and doing kind deeds for which he refused to take any remuneration. His suffering is over and he is already missed. Hope in God was one of his strengths.
