Levett & Sons Funeral Homes & Crematory South Dekalb Chapel 404.241.5656.

Merline May Smith was born in Crawle River, Clarendon, Jamaica, on June 18th in 1934 to the late Ebenezer and Lillian Smith. She was the youngest of six girls and the last of them to go home to our Father.

From a young age, she had an independent and entrepreneurial spirit. Beginning as a domestic worker at fourteen years old, through farming and cultivating her land in adulthood to sell local produce to her community. Her strength and ability also allowed her to bear and raise a daughter.

Merline immigrated to the United States in December, 2015, to reside with her daughter and granddaughter in Georgia. Her last years were filled with family, love, travel, new experiences, laughter and joy.

On January 15, 2024, God called her home to heaven. Merline leaves to cherish her memories: her daughter, Sandra Cameron; her granddaughter, Sanarr McLaughlin; and many nieces and nephews, with special mention of her nieces, Lena Elliston and Hyacinth Cassanova.
