“ I first met Mr. Williams while teaching one of his sons. He was always a supportive parent. You could see the amount of love he had for his children and the amount of love and respect his children had for him. He'd make sure to stop by my class and speak whenever he was visiting. I've taught three of his boys but I've gotten to know the others. I always refer to my students as my babies but the Williams brothers, they are truly my babies. He raised wonderful boys who are so loving and sweet. My prayers and love are with the family, especially my babies. Please continue to support each other.

“ This is a real very surreal moment. Merritt always taught me to live in the moment and to enjoy the beauty of everything that's around. I remember being at him and Rachel house one day and him and her had the best laughter, food, and drinks🥰. They made me feel like it was ok to trust and love. You will be greatly missed and I promise to you and Rachel to forever help look out for the children. Grown or not. Rest in heaven. I know Rachel is happy to see you. Love you all. Forever family❤️❤️💔😭

“ To Almayna, Sekou, Fatinah and the Boys,

I pray you find comfort in the memories, cherish the life and the times you had with Merritt. We all loved him. Let all of us hold sacred the life God has given him and us. For no man know the hour or time for which he will be called eternally. May God shine his face upon you, and cause you to have peace, cause you to grow in him during this time of sorrow. We will miss him, we won't forget his face, his smile and his love.

“ We always went to Yellow River to unwind and let the kids burn off much needed energy. We had some very fond moments at that place. Everytime I go to that river I'll see your face, I know it. I'll never forget the lessons learned from you and I'll miss your humor the most. You knew how to keep people laughing always. I know you're now back with the love of your life. You guys make sure you come walk with these boys and your mama and sister daily. I'll keep check on everybody best I can. I'll love you forever.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. No doubt you have made fond memories which would resurface from time to time, may those memories and God's words in the Bible bring you some measure of comfort. Thinking of you all.
