“ Meta A Great Friend, Sister in Christ, and Mother-like,

Would stand by your side when others leave. She cared about all fully and helped many when life got hard. She knew that wounds from a friend can be trusted, but an enemy multiplies kisses. Being righteous she chose her friends carefully, but the way of the wicked (others) could lead them (friends) astray, creating her an imbalance to isolation and loneliness. There is "Three C's" to friendships and you left me with knowing that I indeed fulfilled your expectations to the three basic types of people with whom you interacted: Constituents, Comrades, and Confidants.

I am blessed to have been her friend. She is loved and missed, and remain current in my heart. Think about the memories that we shared, makes it easier not to seem like the 3.9 years since she departed this place. For I know although she is gone, it doesn't seem that long because of the great loving times that we shared in a mutually loving friendship. We both enjoyed talking about the Lord, Christianity and Catholicity. It is my belief that she lived a life that in death has her in a "Holding Place" awaiting to go to the "Holy Place" to experience life in the Kingdom of God. Heartfelt Love, Rae Rich

“ Ms. Mitchell's daughter, Sam, is a teammate of mine so I don't know her well, but I have met her. We immediately connected - as I am certain she did with all whom she engaged! What a loving, gentle, hospitable spirit she had. And, she loved bragging about all of her family. Blessed are all of you who knew her well. I know she has a special chair in heaven not far from our Lord. Sincerely, Kelly

“ My condolences to the family. She was always talking about her grandchildren. And was excited to go out of the country to see the great grand. She would tickle me in reference to her phone. She wasn't savvy at using technology. So she would always blame the phone or the carrier. Her daughter got her the top of the line iPhone and she said something was wrong with it. I sit down with her many days teaching her how to use her phone. I said to myself I know her daughter was pleased that she was using her phone. Also I was the treasurer at the center and ask her to sell snacks to give her something to do. She was so happy to be the snack lady at the center and did it well. We genuinely loved Mrs. Meta and will miss her soft sweet and sassy comments. I'm elated that I met her. We talked often via phone when the center closed because of the pandemic. I will miss her on my answering service saying "Hi this is Meta, just checking on you." We love you Mrs. Meta but God loved you best, and called you home to your sweet rest.
