“ I found myself scrolling through Snapchat memories a came across a couple videos of Michael. One particular video never fails on making me laugh. I remember sitting in the cafeteria at MVHS An a RANDOM goose sound filled the room. It went silent then laughs filled the air. Ever since I definitely remember him as “Goose man” 🦆. Rest easy Michael aka Goose man.

“ My most recent fond memory of my great nephew Michael happened at our family reunion this year. When he presented his Godmother/Great Aunt Jean with a painting that he had done for her, I told him that I like pictures too. In a few minutes he came back to our table and gave me a canvas also. However, my canvas was blank. I didn't get a chance to ask why there was no picture on my canvas. I can only guess that he was saying I could do what I wanted with it because he had done his part. This experience makes me smile during these sad days.....Aunt Hilda

Michael experienced life, with love. What could be more beautiful than that. This is my memory; he experienced love because two people were involved for his creation. I'll hold on to this. Godspeed to Michael. Family... remember the love. There was love. -Cousin Jeneen Roscoe
