“ Uncle Mac, the smooth, cool, calm, gentle, funny, Mac daddy....lol. When I was younger I would ask my momma if he was moving in slow motion because it's like everything stopped when he smooth walked....lol. I remember his sharp brims, smile, and gentle spirit. He was the calmest Reynolds I knew....lol. We will miss you truly. Condolences and prayers from the Robinson and Peoples Family with love.

“ This is a tough pill to swallow and I must say I don't think I ever will.. you were the first man to love me and you loved me so very much . We shared many memories that I will look back on and smile ..you named me and gave me my affectionate nickname “Pooh “... you were such a gentleman and kind thoughtful soul .. never raised your voice at me , never cursed around me , never spanked me (truly not even once lol)it was gut wrenching when you began to mentally decline right before my eyes ...and in the midst of it all ,you would apologize to me and say “ this ain't me Pooh , I don't like you seeing me like this “ ...and I would assure you “I got you” ..and I did and I always will ... when you had your moments I held your hand , I prayed with you and I always wanted you to beat whatever this mental disease you were fighting ...but it is not that simple ..mental illness can't be cured for allbut I believe that caring ,empathy , love and support can fill that void . I wanted you to know I never thought less of you as man or a father ..and you are still the greatest .my smooth ,fly ,hilarious ,wise fatherI will miss you dad ..I missed you 10 years ago when you began to mentally suffer ..but at least I had your voice ..saw your face...we checked on each otherseeing you three weeks ago was our final goodbyeI told you I loved youand you said “ you just made my whole day just seeing your face “I will hear those words forever as you always told me I am all you haveI won't have those calls anymore to say “ I'm just calling to check on you “....and I won't be able to do the same ...but I know that I no longer have to worry about you ..you are present with our Heavenly Fatherthank you daddy ...I love you dearly ...May you Rest In Peace Micheal J Reynolds Thank you for all the condolences texts and calls....I feel the love ...and although I am not truly able to talk to anyone right now , please know that I appreciate you !!! Blessings to all “ Uncle Mac was one smooth operator lol. You would always find him in a sharp brim and dress shoes. I don't remember ever seeing him in sneakers. A kind beautiful, gentle , funny soul. He was so laid back that he would be sleeping most of the time and we wouldn't even notice. His charm and sense of humour was the absolute best. I loved as a little girl him coming over with his favorite cinnamon toothpicks in his mouth, stash in the car. Also, he was a prankster carry around these little fire cracker's that you throw on the ground and they make these loud popping noises to scare the mess out of us. 🤦 As I got older, he would request that I give him a haircut on his five strings of hair left😭. Those were some of the greatest time's me boosting him up to get all the ladies when he would go out.😭 Practicing his Mac Daddy moves and just the laughter and happiness always that lived in him is unmatched. I miss him dearly already before transitioning and honestly, this seems unreal. Until we meet again, Uncle Mac I will always love you ❤️🙏🙏🙏!!! Kiss grandma for me and let her know that "I'M PRESSING ON- Essie Reynolds". And thankful for my guardian Angel 🙏🙏💖 even though my tearful days and nights missing her as well !!!

Love you Always,
Kim-Leshune 🌹🌹🌹
