“ I remember going to visit Michael in Atlanta with my Mom and siblings when I was younger. He would always take us to the the best stores to shop and show us around the city.I remember him always being dressed to impress and having the best suits. He had a good spirit and was always welcoming when I saw him.

From One who knew "Mr. Mike" only as a Member of the FOOD NETWORK, PLEASE except My Sincere Condolences for your loss of a Good Man; Who was always asking to & giving assistance to who ever asked or him asking to give it!!!

Example: Out of nowhere, Mr. Mike drove up on the side of me a parking as I was trying to desperately & feeling I wouldn't be able to make my way to Mathews , just like I had called LIFT & He said, Ms. Pat don't you need a lift home & I had just asked The Lord for assistance & Mr Mike & his Wife showed up in seconds, A TRUE MIRACLE , My RAM in the BUSH!!!

Please Remember Him with You then & that he is with Now & Forever. REST IN PEACE, MR. MIKE & THANK YOU SOOO VERY MUCH FOR BEING WHO YOU WERE ON THIS EARTH. AMEN AMEN AMEN.
