“ I had the pleasure of working with Michelle years ago on some automation work and I really appreciated her respectful work ethics and communication style. She was a wealth of information and it was very apparent that she loved to share her knowledge as she brought others alongside her. She was truly a great asset and a lovely person to work with. She will be greatly missed!

“ For many years, I worked with Michelle. She was always a joy to be around and work with. She was a source of inspiration and much enthusiasm. The loss of Michelle leaves a huge hole in our lives. Michelle will always be in our hearts and memories. Michelle was always a ray of sunshine. My deepest sympathies to her family and friends. May the love of God surround them during this time of sorrow.

Smurf is my Sand. And while we share DST Sisterhood bond , 99% of our conversation was about the Falcons. I'M a Saints fan, the Falcons top rivals. I will miss her, but will miss her more during NFL football season. Our teams are in the same division. Every Sunday she would send me a text and say " Good luck to you and your Saints, I hope they lose'. 😊

Rest in peace, Smurf. You will truly be missed.

“ I first met Michelle at a gym called Curves when I first moved to Georgia in 2004. We had fun talking during our workouts about kids and NFL football. My 49ers and her Falcons. After the gym closed we lost touch for a few years then ran into each other and stayed connected through Facebook. Through her, I started supporting the foster children for Christmas. In 2018 I went to drop of Christmas gifts for the foster kids and she encouraged me to join her Zumba class. I joined in Jan 2019. One of the best things I ever did. I met a wonderful community of awesome ladies had so much fun every week. That class became a big part of my life. I love Michelle so much. She truly let her light shine. What a beautiful loving soul. Her leadership through Zumba was loving and always fun. She was an example of and encouraged Living life to the fullest! I miss her so much. My sincere condolences and prayers to her beautiful family.
