“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To Victoria, Richard and the family, Emma and I offer heartfelt condolences. My cousin was such a beautiful person, a warrior whose faith endured until the end, a lover and servant of Christ who was an example of faith, trust and obedience to all of us. Know that her place with Christ is assured. Rember, weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning (Psalm 30:5). Please be assured to be in the presence of God is joy everlasting and Mildred is with Him this day. May God give you peace, may He be your strength, may He be that special should that you can lean upon at this time. Be blessed this day and be encouraged. God is with you always.- Lee and Emma Beatty

“ I offer sincere condolences to the family and friends of Ms. Blair. I encourage you to keep in mind: God is faithful and he promises a future when death will be no more (Rev. 21:3-5) and The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29). God always keeps his promises! Consider Joshua 23:14 and Isaiah 55:10,11.
