Interment at Kennedy Memory Gardens , Ellenwood, GA. Viewing Friday December 27, 2013 from 2PM – 8PM at Gregory B. Levett and Sons, South DeKalb Chapel. 4347 Flat Shoals Pkwy., Decatur, GA. 30033. 404-241-5656. Mildred Augusta Lestage (Millie) was born on December 24, 1941 in Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago (W.I.) to Hubert and Ruby Bailey. She departed this life on Wednesday, December 25, 2013 in Lithonia, Georgia. While growing up in Trinidad Millie attended St. Margaret Anglican School and graduated from Ash Secretarial School. She also worked as a civil servant in the renown "Red House," the seat of the Parliament. In 1970, Millie immigrated from Trinidad to Brooklyn, New York. She worked as accountant for more than 30 years at Wausau and Allstate Insurance Companies as well as Swett & Crawford. Millie served as an active member of Ousley United Methodist Church for more than 18 years. She found her passion in cooking. Her famous "Peas & Rice" recipe is revered throughout Atlanta's Trinidadian community. While cooking was her passion her family was her first love. As the matriarch she spent countless hours caring, counseling and nurturing them. Millie is survived by her husband of 40 years, Wallace; six siblings, George, Rosemarie, Christopher, Patricia, Horace and Vilhma; two children, Sishma and Richard; three grandchildren, Niketta, Keyatta, and William; a son-in-law, Antonio; a daughter-in-law, Summer; and other extended family and many dear friends.

“ I offer heartfelt condolences to you all. As you mourn the loss of your loved one who fell asleep in death, please keep in mind: God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him. (1John 4:9). God's Word assures us: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. (Isaiah 26:19). Jesus confirmed his role in this promise when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. (John 11:25).

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the family and friends of Mrs. Mildred. I pray that Jehovah, the God of peace grant you the mental peace and comfort mentioned in his word the Bible at Phillipians 4:6,7 during this difficult time.I know loosing a loved one in death is a tragedy, however we look forward to a joyful time in the near future when Gods Kingdom (mentioned at Matthew 6:10) will rule over mankind. Under that Kingdom no resident will say I am sick. (Isaiah 33:24) There will be no death nor tears. (Revelation 21:3,4) The loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (John 5:28,29) We will live forever here on earth in the abundance of peace. (Psalms 37:11) Meditate on Gods word, and draw close to our Heavenly Father Jehovah in prayer during this difficult time. visit jw.org for more scriptural comfort on dealing with the loss of a loved one.
