“ This was a tough day for me because I've known it was coming for some time now. I was fortunate enough to see my Aunt Mildred one more time and was there when she passed on. I know that was not the lively woman I was so fond of all my life. I remember all the times as a child I would cry when I knew it was time for her to leave when they would come visit us in Arkansas. I finally grew out of that. Most who know me know I love to cook. I got most of my recipes from her and Uncle Ralph. I'll miss you and cherish the dat when we get to see each other again. Love you!

“ Sis. Mildred was always a picture of stylish beauty, grace, kindness and quiet dignity. She and Deacon White were always kind to me and my family, and I will be forever grateful for the time that I spent knowing them. It gives me joy to envision them praising God together in Glory!! My prayers continue to cover the loving family that she leaves behind. 🙏🙏🙏
