

Millard Hope Wooten Jr.

June 18, 1947 - July 3, 2018

Millard Hope "Hopie" Wooten Jr. was born on June 18, 1947 to Mr. Millard Hope Wooten Sr. and Mrs. Katie Mae Wooten (Humphrey) in Quitman, GA.

Mr. Wooten received his formal education in Miami, FL. Immediately following high school he enlisted into the United States Air Force in May 1965.

Mr. Wooten dutifully served his country during the Vietnam War, actively stationed in Takhli RTAB, Thailand where he skillfully executed his assignment as an Aircraft Inertial & Radar Navigation System Technician.

Mr. Wooten would later settle down in Atlanta, GA where he retired from Sadie G. Mays Health & Rehabilitation Center in the mid 2000's.

Mr. Wooten was a talented craftsman, poet and a gifted singer. He had a delightful personality and was adored by all who knew him. He ascribed to the traditions of the Native American belief system, and believed in a holistic approach to life and circumstances.

After a long and arduous battle with complications following a series of strokes, on Tuesday July 3, 2018 the Lord called Mr. Wooten home.

He is survived by his daughter Mrs. Arrione Clarke, son Mr. Derek Wooten, sisters Ms. Henrietta Wooten, Mrs. Katie Woods, Ms. Francis Wooten and a host of nieces and a nephews.

"Daddy, know that my soul aches at the reality of the silence of your voice- but I understand that you had to leave. For always you will be my song, my melody. I will carry you in my spirit, until we meet again on Heaven's time. My father, my love, my light, now we must say good night." -Arrione

“ *This is for Arrione Clark::
The world is not built on lies, Eventually the truth overwhelms any falsehood told in a revengeful gesture. I hope you can live conscience free after such a disrespectful appearance and speech at Millard's funeral. You need to have a nice long talk with your mother, so that you can really find out who and what your father was. I realize that you missed the love of a father in your youth. . . . and that is not an easy pill to swallow. My prayers are with you I represent the Southern Supreme Council of the OES.
If you wish to correspond with me, please do so by email ;

Thank you for your cooperation.*

“ Dear Wooten Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

Thank you for your warm regards Ms. Ethridge. I am sure that my father would greatly appreciate the sentiment.
