“ To the family of Milton James Marshall:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ To the family and friends, It's so sad to lose a love one in death. Soon "God Kingdom" (Matthew 6:10) will rule over mankind, under that Kingdom "no resident will say i am sick" (Isaiah 33:24), there will be no deaths, nor tears (Revelation 21:3,4). We will be able to live forever here on earth "in the abundance of peace" (Psalms 37:11). “ I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer sincere condolences to all. May your faith in God's loving resurrection provision ease your sorrow as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. Remember... "God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Jesus himself promises: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercise faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." ~John 11:25
