Grandma 😭,
I really don't have any words to describe how I feel that you're no longer around. You adopted me as your own and treated me as such. God knows best 😞. I love you and I promise to finish strong for you.

“ Sending condolences to the Maynard family. I did not know her personally but I had the privilege to work with her sons. From what I've learned from them she was a wonderful christian lady. May you find comfort in knowing she knew, loved, and served the Lord! Blessings unto you all and I will continue to keep you in my prayers.

Sister Mynard will be missed dearly, my travelling partner after church. There had not been one Sunday we travel from church, that Sister Mynard and I would not spend time parked in my vehicle in the driveway of her home discussing the word of God, Praying or interceding on behalf of a love one. She was a faithful servant of the Lord, gospel singer, and prayer warrior. She loved the Lord, believe and trusted in his Holy word. She was a no nonsense woman. I just love her. She had this piercing laugh, always elegantly dressed with her lovely hat. Oh sister Mynard I will miss you.

I know you have already join God's choir, so continue to sing and Rest in Peace with your Heavenly Father.

“ To the family and children of Miss Tina my deepest condolence. I was introduced to miss Tina by Mr Joseph Bass from St Croix. Miss Tina was a prayer warrior. She prayed for me several times over the phone. Although I never met Miss Tina in person it's as if I had known her for years. We talked laughed and prayed together. I am sadden by her passing and will missed her, her encouragement and prayers. Rest in peace Miss Tina you are now in the arms of our Saviour Jesus Christ. Your unknown friend Thelma.

“ I've known Mrs. Maynard all my life. At times I called her Auntie Ali not because she was my aunt but because her daughters - specifically Yasmine and Melynda- and I grew up like sisters. She was stern yet funny. I always admired her fancy outfits and huge matching hats at church on Sundays and admired how she walked almost gliding on her tippy toes. She was a social butterfly, a woman of strong faith and a great cook. The news of her passing hit me like a ton of bricks. We always think we're prepared for news of transitions, but we never really are. On behalf of my family, our condolences go out to her entire family, her church families, her Nevis connections and everyone that knew and loved her. May her soul Rest In Peace.

“ *Sis. Maynard was a wonderful person. She traveled with my wife and i regularly to church and back. She traveled with me to Church functions and often rendered Solos. She song on a regular basis at First Assembly of God Christiansted, where I am the Senior Pastor.
Sis. Maynard was a prayer warrior and passionate worshipper. She had a passion for Christ who love so much and often testified about.
Oh how I remember those lovely meals she prepared for my wife and I, especially the BULL FOOT SOUOPS. When i think of them I want to salivate like Pavlov's dog.
We prayed with her many times on the phone and blessed her olive oils that she used for anointing during prayer, during her illness We miss you sis. Maynard and will join with you again at first resurrection. Rest well in the presence of Jesus.
On behalf of my family and i and First Assemnly of God vchurch family, I express condolence to her family. May God encourage and strengthen you at this time.

On behalf of the Creighton family (Cornell, Tramaine, Makaila, Jaeden), I would like to express my deepest condolences to my cousin Bosley, his children, grandchildren and the entire family circle on the passing of our dear beloved Sis Albertine.

Sis Allie was a friend, cousin-in-law, and sister in Christ. She was a woman of faith and a no nonsense Christian. She spoke with authority when it came to God's word and was a great prayer warrior. I will miss her beautiful singing, testimonies and words of encouragement. May you be comforted that Sis Allie is with the Jesus she served and spoke so passionately about. We are hopeful that we will see her again. May God comfort and strengthen you during your time of grief.

“ Tribute to Miriam Albertine “Allie” Stapleton-Maynard

It is with profound sadness that we mourn the passing of Miriam Albertine “Allie” Stapleton-Maynard. We are sending our deepest condolences and sympathies to the immediate and extended family. We must also always remember as it is written in Matthew 5:4 “Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.” Let us take solace that though she may be absent from the body, she is present with the Lord. “Those we love can never be more than a thought away, for as long as there’s a memory they live in our hearts to stay.”
