“ In reading the recent obituaries, I came across that of your loved one. I would like to express my deepest condolences to your family. I am sending this message to share some encouraging bible thoughts that can help at a time such as this. Only from the word of God can we find real comfort. In particular the scripture found at Revelation 21:4 which says, “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Philippians 4:7 assures you that you can endure when, “the peace of God that excels all thought guard your hearts and mental powers.” I hope this will ease your pain and again I'm so sorry for your loss. Please feel free to contact me.

“ The loss of a love one brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and Revelation 21:3, 4.

“ To the Garrett family, I wanted to express my sincere condolences to you. I am very sorry for your loss. Whenever we lose a loved one, it leaves a deep pain in our heart's that will never be forgotten. However, you can have comfort in knowing that God will strengthen you during this difficult time. Psalm 147:3 says, "He[God] is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots." I hope this has brought you a measure of comfort. My prayers are with the family at this time.
