“ To the Family, Wife, Mother, Father, Brother, Nephews, Aunts and Friends:

We The Smith Sisters send our sincere condolences and love to you one and all on the passing away of your beloved Djuan. We wish we could be there to support you in the celebration of Djuan's homegoing but, know that we are with you in the spirit.

Rose and Gerald we know that you will cherish the 34 years that God loaned him to you. Honor his being, think on the joy, love and good times you shared with his time here on earth and know that Djuan is no longer suffering from the day to day ritual of dialysis. Share with his children the memories of their Dad, embrace his Wife and let her know that Djuan is absent from the body but present with the Lord. I leave you with these words of comfort. Psalms 1: 1 thru 3, Blessed is the man who walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of the sinners , nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. 2.But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in the law doeth he meditate day and night. 3. And he shall be like a tree painted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. God bless and we love you.

“ *To the Family:
May you find peace and comfort in Jesus' words recorded at John 11:25. He said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." God cares and he invites you to "draw close to Him (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." - James 4:8*

“ *Djuan was a quiet , laid back child pleasant , tall in statue, obedient, not given to anger,
He was self sufficient, worked from a young man into adulthood, a very good father, son and friend. RIP Djuan.*
