“To the West Family: In his word the Bible, our Creator promised us something wonderful, that there is indeed hope for seeing loved ones again: John 5:28,29 tells us: "...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." All those who demonstrate love and obedience to God have a prospect to enjoy a life together on a beautiful, peaceful earth restored by Him: Psalms 37:10, 11: "...the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." Those who are gone have already paid the penalty for sin, which is death. (Romans 6:23). What wonderful hope you have to see Forrest again.

“I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer condolences and comfort from the Scriptures. Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." -John 11:25. God's Word, assures us that "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." -John 5:28,29. Continue to "draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." -James 4:8

“Forrest went to school with my two girls, and we all liked him very much. What a fine, and talented young man, who always had a big grin on his face, and always spoke to you and took time to talk to you. Tragically, gone too soon. Our hearts break for the family and we know the terrible pain and anguish you are going through. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He is in a much greater place now, and take comfort in knowing that we will all be reunited with our loved ones up in Heaven one day soon. May God give you all peace and comfort, and cherish your memories of your precious Forrest. We grieve with you, and it was such a delight to have known him.

Prayers be with your entire family.

“My sincerest prayers and deepest condolences goes out to the West family. I know this time isn't easy for you all. As having lost a child myself I know it's something that you won't forget. But through prayer may you find a way to be at peace knowing that your son is in a much greater place. We don't know why things happen the way they do but God always knows what's best. So grieve how you want for how ever long you need to say goodbye to him-for it's only temporary. One day you will be reunited with your beloved son. Celebrate his life and cherish the wonderful memories he has provided you all with. Praying that you all find rest, comfort, and peace in the Lord's unchanging hands. I will continue to lift you all up in prayer. Peace, love, and blessings to you all.
