“ My sincere sympathy is extended to to Kevin's family, the Saint Philip Family, the Sanctuary Choir of SPC and his vast host of friends. He was a wonderful person. He was a positive person and loved the Lord. I've served him professionally for many years in the past and most recently worked with him in a business. This is a shock for us all but God always knows best. My prayers are with us all at this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Frieda Minga##imported-end##

“ To The Wheeler Family:
A man of Faith, A man of love, A man who has risen up above. A man of dreams, A man with plans, A man who never faltered and always knew how to land. Gifts he would give, songs of praise he would sing, always uplifting, never doubting a thing. Kevin I will miss you my dear, But the memories I will keep for the rest of my years. A big heart you had, always putting others first.
No concerns for yourself never wanting to make anything worst.
That's what I loved about you and I always will. A ture Christian who never sat still. Enjoy your new home, rest in peace my friend!
