Obituary

Lee Frank Thompson

Lee was born on July 31, 1948 in Valdosta, Georgia to the late Mrs. Trudie Mae (Simmons)

Thompson and Deacon Levaniel B. Thompson. Lee was married to the lovely Sandra Vaughan Thompson for 30 years. Lee had a very loving, outgoing, and caring spirit. He loved to laugh and make others laugh. The third child of seven children and the oldest brother, Lee was very family oriented. He touched many with his infectious and caring personality, "He never met a stranger".

Lee was educated in the Valdosta City School System. Upon receiving his high school diploma from Pinevale High School in 1966, he attended Morehouse College. He also received credits from Georgia State (College) University completing his BS degree in Psychology from the University of Maryland.

Lee joined the military (US Army) in 1970. He served his country from 1970-1977. Lee served as a Drug and Alcohol Counselor during his many stateside assignments and his overseas tour at 2nd General Hospital in Landstuhl Germany.

Upon leaving the military, Lee worked several years in the banking Industry. In 1982, he began his career with the United States Postal Service. He worked for the postal service until his retirement in March of this year.

Lee was preceded in death by his mother, Mrs. Trudie M. Thompson. Lee leaves to cherish his memory, his loving wife Sandra. Two daughters: Glesha P. Taylor, Ariarna L. Thompson.
