“ James was a good man. To me he was a co-worker, a mentor, a source of positive attitude, and Lord knows I needed his positive attitude more than not. But he was so much more than that, for insatnce, we both had daughters round the same age and we use to sit and compare notes and give advise. We talked about so many things. But above all, he was a good friend and a pleasent face. It took alot for me to get use to not seeing him on a shift to shift bases in the 2nd Batt., , but it was nothing like this. He was a major part of my day. Man lam gonna miss you dude....so much. God Bless.

“ To our Family: To have had the opportunity to be apart of the life of an Angel is such a special gift!!!! But as we know- Uncle was a trooper through it all, and because GOD loves him and us so much he allows us all the gift of eternal life-and we know UNCLE HAS THAT!!!! I will always remember your smile Uncle-and the trips downtown to Greenbrier Mall. Thank you for your smile, wisdom, and encouragement,

“ To the Family: Keep in mind that God's Word assures us that "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29). Jesus confirms his role in restoring our loved ones to life when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God cares for you and always keeps his word! (John 3:16, Joshua 23:14).

“ *Brother James,
Your sudden transition was unexpected and it leaves your fire department family with a sadden heart, but I believe in God's Word that "being absent from the body is to be present with the Lord".
Thank you for your friendship and the service you have rendered in meeting the needs of those who live in this earthly community. Now my brother take hold of the reward thats awaits you in the Heavens...*

“ Sir Lloyd James you were sent here to take care of many people I am thankful that I was one. You were a silent leader who made a difference through your actions. A man of few words but many...many good and great deeds. You will be missed and always remembered.
