“ We offer condolences and encouragement from the Bible. Jesus' encouraging words recorded at John 14: 1 states: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Exercise faith in God, exercise faith in me also." God's Word assures us that "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28) What a loving provision!##imported-begin##Beulah Parks & Family##imported-end##

“ I am deeply Saddened to learn of Nathan's death. Condolences to Alfreda and the family.
Many years ago, I was in Tifton getting ready to come back to Richmond. Someone knocked on the bathroom door and said Nathan wants to see you. Up to that point it had not occurred to me that he would come to see me. It was an honor I never forgot. After that he took charge of school reunions and I never missed one. Reunions will not be the same.without Nathan.
I loved Nathan very much, and I will miss him very much.
