“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Maggie Pearl Williams. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God’s word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, John 11:25 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. In your time of sorrow you can draw closer to God in prayer. ~James 4:8.

“ To the Family and Friends of Mrs. Maggie Pearl Williams. I wish to express my condolences as you endure the loss of your love one. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times the loss may be unbearable. During this most difficult time, Draw close to God in prayer. Philippians 4:7 tells us that God will grant us the mental peace we need by means of Jesus Christ. May this peace be with you now, and the days ahead. “ She was a wonderful person and a good neighbor. I have nothing but good childhood memories of her. Her smile lights up the room when she enter. A loving mother to her 4 kids. She is at peace and her spirit lives on thru her kids and grandkids. May God comfort you all in this time. God Bless. Ms. Angela Creamer

“ To the family of Maggie, my cousin, please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your love one. For only God knows and can heal the hurt and pain you all are feeling during this time. May your family find comfort knowing that God said in His Word Revelation 21:4; "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death; neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any pain; for the former things are passed away." so as you lean on Jesus; He will see you through this difficult time and the days ahead.

Prayerfully,
Julia Wells, Fayetteville NC

“ My sincere sympathy to the family. Only God truly understands the depth of your pain, and he offers comfort and hope to each of you at this very difficult time.

(2Corinthians 1:3,4) Jesus said at John 5:28,29, "Do not marvel at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Clearly, Jesus was referring to the resurrection. Be confident that you will see your loved one again as promised by our King, Jesus Christ.

“ To the Family and Friends of Mrs. Williams:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer Scriptural encouragement to you all. God made a loving provision to restore dead ones to life when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). In harmony with this provision, Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). These promises are secure...God always fulfills his Word! (Joshua 23:14)

“ My sincere condolences to the family of Mrs. Williams. There are a few things in life that hurts as much as the death of a loved one. But it is at these times that we gain comfort from the "Father of Tender Mercies and the God of all comfort."-2 Cor 1:3,4. He comforts us with scriptures such as John 5:28,29, Rev 21:3,4 & Acts 24:14,15. Please read. Also for more on "What Hope for the Dead" please visit jw.org. Thanks.

“ My heart is filled with grief but I know that she is with the Lord smiling down. I grew up in the church (St. Mark Early Church of God In Christ) and Mrs. Maggie was a faithful servant. I remember it just being Mother Anderson, myself, Mrs. Maggie, Jimmy, Shatee, Nell having Sunday school and church at times. They made me feel like part of the family. She was greatly loved and will be greatly missed.

My heart goes out to the family, I only meet Maggie once, but she had a very sweet spirit, may God be a shelter for her family in their time of need.
