“ The family has the Davis family’s deepest sympathy. Barbara’s love for God; her inner and outer beauty; her walk, her talk and her voice served as a tribute unto the Lord. Her angelic voice will forever be with me and reside in my heart. I loved her singing!!! When Barbara sang during my sister’s, Linda Curney, funeral—something happened right then and there for me. It was as if the Lord allowed PEACE in the hollow areas that had been filled with sadness. Both Barbara and I danced in the spirit as she sang, and for that, I am forever grateful that God used her at that moment and time and a “Move of God” took place right then and there. I shall always hold near and dear to my heart Barbara’s constant words of encouragement and inspiration. We all loved you, but God loved you best. Your living is a testament and was not in vain—so many have been touched and benefited because of your existence. For the works you have done speaks for you. I am a better person for having had YOU and the Christ in YOU in MY life. God, I thank you for this woman of God who passed my way. Peace unto you, my sister in Christ. Always, cousin, Peggy Curney Davis##imported-begin##Peggy Curney Davis & Family##imported-end##

“Wow my husband and I just happened to see the "in memory of" notice when we passed by the church last night. Although I haven't spoken with Barb in about 2 yrs my heart was saddened when we saw the note. The saddest part is that I would always say that I have to stop in to see how she's doing one day. However, our church services coincide so I didn't get the chance. We worked together at Sears and I always remember her being such a caring loving person. She was always wanting to make everything all better for everyone. We had many conversations about that too because I would always say " now Barb you know that you cannot fix everything and you cannot make it all better" - that's why we have Jesus :-). Her response was always I know Terri, I know Terri - I just want it to be better for them (whoever was having the issue). A beautiful woman with a beautiful spirit - I know that she will be missed especially that infectious warm smile.

May God the love and peace of God comfort Pastor Hughley, the young Hughleys and all other family, friends and members.

Love,

Teresa (Terri) Hewitt###imported-begin##Teresa Hewitt###imported-end##
