Daisy E. Tucker, a loving devoted mother, faithful servant, God-fearing woman, hard worker, warm hearted, soft spoken and a child of God; was born April 24, 1938 in Monticello, Georgia, to the late Leonard and Frieda Alexander.

Daisy was one of six siblings. Two of her siblings preceded her in death; William Alexander, and Minnie Phillips

Daisy joined Liberty Hill Baptist Church at an early age and later moved her membership to Evergreen Baptist Church where she served as the Usher Coordinator and also served on the Hospitality Ministry. She was married on September 14, 1990 to Raymond Tucker. She was the proud mother of six children and three step-children. Her immense love for her children was demonstrated through her selfless devotion of service, guidance, and support to each of them. She taught them values, respect, responsibilities, cleanliness, to love one another, and how to be the best that they could be, no matter how much or little they had in life.

Daisy touched so many lives during her lifetime. Her graceful smile, the warmth of her personality and her compassion for people was exhibited in her daily walk. Her light will forever shine in our hearts.

She leaves to cherish her memory a devoted husband, /Raymond Tucker and six children; Frieda (Lee), John (Marcia), Carl, Michelle (Gerard), Marvin (Jackie), and Milver; three step-children, Oneida, Janerro, and Raymond; a devoted sister, Ruth Alexander-Rice; and devoted brothers, Leonard Alexander (Emily), James Alexander (Dorothy). She was loved by 23 grand children, 14 great grand children, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, and a special nephew Donald.

“To Those I Love”

When I am gone, just release me, let me go...

So I can move into my afterglow

You mustn't tie me down with your tears;

Let's be happy that we had so many years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess how much you gave me in happiness

I thank you for the love you each have shown

But now it's time I traveled alone.

So grieve for me awhile, if you must,

Then let your grief be comforted with trust.

It's only for a while that we must part,

So bless the memories within your heart.

And then, when you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and a “Welcome Home”.

“Marvin (Jackie) & the Family... As you go through this most difficult time of your heartfelt loss, allow your tears to flow for each is a note of love rising to the heavens as a silent prayer for God's comforting arms to hold you close. Ms. Daisy was a portrait of zeal and character, certainly a rare breed. The word of God tells us "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord" and there she is indeed. My darlings... like a bird singing in the rain, let grateful memories survive in time of sorrow. My thoughts and prayers are with you and I am here for you. Love you much!

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you and whispered "Come to Me." With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best. – Author Unknown
