“ Please accept my sincerest condolences in this time of grief. The loss of a loved one, is never an easy process for us, because it is unnatural. God never purposed for mankind to die, and have to endure the loss of a loved one. But I encourage you to dwell on God's promises of a resurrection and the permanent elimination of death, and the sorrow that it causes. If you meditate on Revelation 21:4 and Isaiah 25:8 I am sure you will be comforted to know that you can see your loved ones again in peaceful conditions. You and your family are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Misha Williams##imported-end##

“ We offer heartfelt condolences and encouragement from the scriptures. Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." - John 11:25. God's word assures us that: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." - John 5:28, 29##imported-begin##The Parks Family##imported-end##
