“ To the Family of Mrs. Toliver: I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer sincere condolences. God's Word assures us that "the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29). Jesus confirmed his role in this loving promise when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." -John 11:25. Continue to "draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." -James 4:8

“ Dear Toliver Family, In his word the Bible, our Creator promised us something wonderful, that there is indeed hope for seeing loved ones again: John 5:28,29 tells us:"...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." All those who demonstrate love and obedience to God have a prospect to enjoy a life together on a beautiful, peaceful earth restored by Him: Psalms 37:10, 11: "...the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." Those who are gone have already paid the penalty for sin, which is death. (Romans 6:23). What wonderful hope you have to see Lillie Mae again.
