“ Our family would like to offer our deepest sympathy for the loss of your precious loved one. Words cannot begin to take the pain away, but knowing that others are thinking of you can provide a measure of comfort. With each passing day we pray that you reflect on fond memories of Mrs. Cody as a source of strength. May our Heavenly Father continue to wipe the tears from your eyes as await the time when death will be no more. Revelation 21:3, 4

“ To the Family of Mrs. Levetta Cody:
I offer heartfelt condolences and encouragement from the Scriptures. The "God of all comfort" promises... "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28,29).

Our loving Heavenly Father has a perfect record of keeping his word so continue to "draw close to him and he will draw close to you." - James 4:8

“ Vetta, you will always be my Lady Warrior Shero! You taught me to enjoy life to the fullest with a litte attitude...which will take you a long way. I can remember our beach trips where we were family but bonded as sisters. Together we laughed, cried, fought, argued, shopped, partied, cooked and did it all over again and again. Thank you for teaching me to be the 'DivaGlam' I am in life.

I'm glad you are able to claim your victory through Our Lord and Savior. Stay sweet and continue to be a light to all you meet. Love you to inifinity and beyond.

*Until we meet again,
Your cousin by blood and your sister by love,
Sheri L. Felder*
