“ I'm sending condolences and Scriptural encouragement to the family of Mrs. Mary Williams. May God's loving resurrection provision comfort you as you consider his assurance that "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29). Continue to "draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8). Keep in mind that God cares and "he himself will sustain you." (Psalm 55:22)

“ Phillip, Kelly, Jason, and Dad, The Lord will continue to shine a light on your hearts during this time of sorrow. He will strenghten you and love you just as your mother does. She will truly be missed and the pain from your tears will comfort you with each memory. She loves you more than life and will continue to watch over you in heaven, so make her proud.

I love you all!!

“Mrs. M. Williams, my neighbor, was a very loved, kind, and sweet neighbor. She will truly be missed. To the family - maintain your strength, faith, and trust in the Lord's decision because he doesn't make mistakes. And to Jason, stay strong my brother! Allow God to be your shoulder and you will see that he will see you through this triumph and others.

*Your Neighbor,
Henry Hammond*
