“ From one family to another, we would like to offer our sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Words can not take the pain away but knowing that many people are thinking of you can be a source of strength. Rely on the promises found at Revelation 21:3, 4 to provide comfort and hope. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ To the Family of Mrs. Pamela Spencer:
Words cannot express the sudden shock and the loss of a dear friend of mine. Even though we were separated by miles, we stayed in contact via e-mail almost daily. She was always inviting me to join "facebook", but I am "old school" and refused. I do know how she loved the Lord and with her children and grandchildren; now with that comfort I know that we will see her again. In closing I would like to offer her family my favorite scripture - Eccl. 3:1 To everything there is a season.....

“ To the Family of Mrs. Pamela Spencer:
I offer heartfelt sympathy and encouragement from God's Word. At John 5:28, 29, God promises...."The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out."
Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he assures us that ..."He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." -Revelation 21:4
