“ I don't have words to express the joy Rosa brought to me, and so many others, during our ordinary days around the Fulton County Courthouse and Courtroom 5B. Her patience, kindness, happiness and faith were evident in the way she conducted herself in her job and with all the varied personalities who crossed her path each day. I can still so clearly see Rosa's smile and can hear her voice and her laughter. I will always carry these joyful memories of Rosa in my heart.##imported-begin##Jill G. Polster##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Ms. Rosa Kinsey. Rosa was a soldier. She fought the good fight. She finished her course. In this life we meet but a precious few who inspire us to love one another. To the girls, I leave you these words, "Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal." To the rest of us who may question why God may have taken this magnificent flower from us, I remind you that though we may love Rosa, God loves her best and appointed this time for her to move into her heavenly mansion. With a broken heart,##imported-begin##Daryl W. Queen##imported-end##
