“ To the family of T. Denise Ponder:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ I offer condolences and encouragement to the family and friends of Mrs. Ponder. May your faith in God's loving resurrection provision comfort and sustain you all as you look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. God is faithful and always keeps his promises! He assured us of his love... " God sent forth his only-begotten Son into the world that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9.

“ To the Ponder Family. As one of Aaron co-workers I did not have the pleasure of meeting Denise. But knowing how Aaron spoke of her she was a beautiful person inside out. I will continue to send prayers for your family. Knowing Aaron and the spiritual person he is please know you had an Angel here on earth and now you have gained one in heaven. Talk to her she can still hear you. Be bless knowing God is with you. And I f I can help any way please let me know.

*In God's love,
Jewel*

To the Ponder family we would like to offer our condolences to your family. It was such a shock to hear of Trina's (as we knew her in Albany) passing. Many years had passed and we lost contact with her but we often thought of her and remembered all the great times and memories we shared as neighbors. To her husband and son I know she will be missed but just remember to look to the hills from which comes all of your help.
