“ *To the Family:
May you gain comfort as you consider what Jesus said in the Scripture recorded at John 11:25 - "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Our loving Heavenly Father assures us that "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29). Remember that God always keeps his word and he invites you to "draw close to him (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." -James 4:8*

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the family. I'm extremely sorry for the loss of your loved one. Please accept my sympathy for your tragic loss. Death is exactly as the Bible described it at 1 Corinthians 15:26 as "an enemy." Please be aware that many in your situation have received comfort in the Bible's promise at Revelation 21:3, 4 that soon, "there will be no more pain, death, or mourning." What a comforting thought to know, that one day, we will not have to suffer the loss of our dear loved ones anymore! It's my sincere wish that you were comforted by these words.
