“ I had no idea that Trudy's given name was Estella. How fitting. She was a star in every way. A star servant, a star cook (thank you so much), a star teacher (I learned many things), and a star of kindness. The kindness and love she showered on so many of us "kids", the time she so generously gave, and the blessings she delivered serve as a role model for all of us. One thing I know for sure, there is one more star, laughing in heaven. God bless you Trudy! Prayers for you and your very large family . . . we are all missing you today.

“ We learned so much from Trudy and her positive attitude about life and the work of the Faith. Winnie especially appreciated learning how to teach the Faith to the folks who answered the door and were willing to give some time to hearing the Message. Memories - of Trudy - aging in body but not in spirit - hopping in her little red car to go off to the hinterlands of SC to help elect Assemblies while others were enjoying the fragrances of Convention at the Temple, of that raucous laugh that made heads turn to see what could be so funny about this life, and of compassionate listening to the woes of young motherhood.
Love you Trudy - love to the family too.##imported-begin##Winnie and Oscar Merritt##imported-end## “ 'Happy for her transition and condolences to her family!

We are so mad at ourselves that we did not make time sooner to visit Trudy; now we hope she will visit us to continue to help inspire us as she has always done with a seriousness about the business of teaching and spreading this glorious Cause, underlying that contagious laughter.
Much love to Philip & Samira and children!##imported-begin##Rich & Vesta Pellegrino & Family##imported-end##

“ Dearest Phillip and Family,
Please know that my prayers are with you. I cannot tell you how much my family and I loved Trudy. Trudy and I shared many laughs during the years I was at the Louis Gregory Baha'i Institute. After my daughters were born she would come and stay the weekend with us. My girls started calling her grandma Trudy. She will always be in our hearts and we will miss her special laugh.

“ Trudy is being greeted with banners of light, as the angels of the Concourse welcome her home. This is a woman worthy of being called "His handmaiden", a lady who exemplified steadfastness and tenacity, who served her Lord with tireless devotion. We will miss her, but she is, in reality, as close as ever and always in our hearts.

Sending my love and prayers,
