“ *To the Family:
May "the God of all comfort" continue to sustain you as you all look ahead to the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. God's Word promises..."I will by no means leave you nor by any means forsake you." ~Hebrews 13:5. Keep in mind...God is faithful and always keeps his promises! Consider Isaiah 55:11, John 3:16 and Revelation 21:3-5.*

“ Judith,
Sorry just can't be sad enough, my heart cries for your loss and pain. I am so sorry for your loss of your baby girl. She's in a beautiful place now and will await you all there. You will be together again someday, hold that knowledge close to your heart. I wanted to come give you a hug last night, but I was too late arriving at the funeral home. I will continue to pray for you and your family, that you may find some comfort and peace soon. I love you and miss you greatly on the High Risk Unit. Take care doll, call if you need anything, an ear, a shoulder, a friend. Anything at all. May God hold you and your family close forever. God bless. Michelle Howland - High Risk
