“ Sis McCadney aka Nana
I always enjoyed myself when I spent time with you. You welcomed me and made me want to become a part of your loving family. I loved your sense of humor, your wisdom, your love of the arts, your cooking and most of all your love and appreciation for Jehovah and his organization! I miss you! I truly look forward to spending time with you again. Love Angie Hardy

“ Mommy,
I really miss you! For 53 years you were the one that pulled me together. You were the one that kept the laughter in my life. You were the one that helped me raise four wonderful children. Phaedra, Justin, Adjoa, Jared. We can do this. We will pulled throught these days of tears and pain because you were also the one that brought Jehovah into our lives. I love you mommy. Sleep now my darling and rest. For soon you will wake up and we will all be there dressed in our best. Love your daughter Pattie
