“ I am thankful that God allow me to have you as a friend for about 25 years. You were one the wittiest, strong young ladies I have ever met. I am so thankful of all the recent conversations we had via text. Tuesday text message was so out of the ordinary, but I was so excited to hear from you. I guess that was our goodbye conversation until later. When I got the call Sunday morning, I was in disbelief of the name that came with the message. I was so torn. It's not easy to write this, but I have been given a little strength. I pray they God gives Darryl and the family to strength to endure this moment. I'm not sure how it's going to feel not being able to text you in our moments or holiday or pics of life without you here. You are one of a kind Mulika T Rowe, and thank you for allowing me to be your friend. I knew in highschool, we were friends for life bonded on Dunwoody senior page. My baby pic on your page and mine on yours. All I can say then was, thank God we were friends. Your smile, definitely your unique laugh will be missed.
