

Myron Miller

September 30, 1964 - January 28, 2017

Myron Bernard Miller (affectionately known as My My, or Mylo) was born on September 30th, 1964 to Charles and Shirley Miller, In Atlanta, Ga. On January 28th, 2017, God joyfully called Myron home. Myron was a great person, loved by all who knew him. A guarded person, if he loved you, you were loved for life. Myron was an exceptional student at both Murphy and Avondale High Schools, where he excelled in his studies. While still attending high school, Myron was recruited by a major property management firm, of which he was employed. Myron proved to be very knowledgeable in this field, moving up the ranks to eventually becoming property manager and property accountant at several locations throughout the southeast. In fact his skills were often sought after, because of his ability to turn troubled properties around. Outside of the dedication to his professional life, Myron also enjoyed his personal time. An avid traveler, It wouldn't surprise anyone to get a call from Myron telling you he was in Florida or some other state taking a few days off. Myron also enjoyed his love ones. A loving son to his mother, A loving brother to his brother's, A loving uncle to his nieces and nephews, and to everyone who knew him, A loving friend. To all that knew him, knew of his compassion for others. Memories shall be everlasting to his wonderful mother Shirley Miller; his loving brothers, Fidel Miller, Angus Miller, Mark Miller and Jarvis (Donna) Miller. To his Aunt Nell Frances Roberts; Uncle's Russell Roberts and Amos Roberts, loving Nieces and Nephews, Cousins and Friends. We love you Myron, but God loves you more.

“ Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support.... And look to God’s word the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”
