RE: Mrs. Myrtle Diane Compton

Dear: Family

It is with the humble reality of our humanness, yet the joyful awareness of our infinite certainty in Christ Jesus that the Family of Redemptive Life shares in your loss of Sister Compton. There seems never a more defined time in life when we realize the depth of love for someone, yet at the same time the degree of hurt by having to say goodbye. It is with this truth that we cling even closer to the promise of the Savior, that “Paradise” has once again opened its gates to one of the children of God.

May your hearts be encouraged, may God’s peace be realized, and may the reality that “Living is Christ but dying is gain” comfort your souls in your time of bereavement. The Family of Redemptive Life is with and praying for you.

Steadfast, Immovable, In the LORD,

*Dr. Mark W. Thompson,
Senior Pastor*
