“ As our dear Nadira is to be laid to rest today, I borrow the words from Faure's requiem:

*'May the angels lead you into paradise, may the martyrs receive you as you arrive,
and bring you into the holy city of Jerusalem.*

*May the choir of angels welcome you,
and with Lazarus, who was once poor, may you have eternal rest.'*

Eternal rest grant unto her oh Lord and may light perpetual shine upon her!

Lord, grant the parents, her sisters, family and numerous friends and relatives the grace to face what lies ahead today. Deal graciously with them as they mourn and say farewell to Nadira. May they find comfort and consolation in you and may they realise that you will never leave them nor forsake them in Jesus name. Amen.

It is our trust and faith in God that gives us the strength to keep moving. You will never forget Nadira, neither will your extended family or friends nor her friend. She lived but a short life and now she is resting in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ. You have your own guardian angel watching over you. You all would rather have her here but God had other plans.
