“ I’m sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death. The “God of all comfort” empowered Jesus to resurrect dead ones when he was on the earth; giving us evidence of what He will do in the future. Jesus assures us: “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies will come to life.” ~John 11:25.

“ My beloved best friend/sister...you were my PERSON. I am still walking around feeling like I'm in a dream...waiting to wake up and see your smiling face. We have shared 38 long years together intimately, with your following me out of our New York hometown here to Georgia so we could be together. You were there through it all, good, bad and ugly...always supporting me and showing me love. Even the hardest of situations could not break us apart . No one understood our bond but us. The past couple of years have been tough for us, yet we made it through and in the end, I was there taking care of you then holding your hand as you transitioned to be home with our Father. Everyone remembers you as "the life of the party". There was never a stranger in your presence...just a friend you hadn't yet met. We all relied on you in our own little ways. You will remain forever in my heart. I am at peace knowing I did all I could for you in life, and carried out your wishes in death. Til we meet again....Donna Shah
