

Nasah Chaaya Menard

July 16, 1997 - November 12, 2020

Nasah C. Menard was born in Brooklyn, New York on July 16, 1997. She was her mother's (Chalon) second daughter, and the first child on her father's (Dany) side. She passed away November 2020 surrounded by her loving family in Atlanta Georgia.

Nasah was described by many people as the color yellow. She had such a warm, bright, and vibrant aura that many people could not help to love her. She had such an amazing smile and infectious laugh that could make anyone smile on their worst day. Her favorite quote since High school was "Do small things with great love." and she made sure she practiced that everywhere she went.

Nasah attended Apalachee High school and graduated in 2015. During her time there she was very involved in many varsity sports such as Volleyball, Tennis, Basketball Cheerleading, and Track and field. For her undergraduate career Nasah attended Georgia Southern University. She majored in Biology with a minor in Chemistry. Nasah recently graduated with a Bachelors of Science in May 2020. Nasah planned on attending Dental school and studying to be a oral surgeon.

During her time at college Nasah got a job at Wild Wing Cafe where she worked as a bartender and server. Many of her regulars would talk very highly of the service Nasah would provide to them. Everyone considered Nasah to be a very valuable friend.

She was preceded in death by her great-grandmother (Loris Gibbs) and her grandfathers (Charles Gray and Richard Pennant)

She is survived by her mother Chalon Gray, her father Dany Menard. Her grandmothers Myrna, and Yolaine (Willy). Her grandfather Jean-Claude. Her aunts Michelle, Michele(Shawn), Peggy, Denise. Her uncles Pascal, Ted, Jose. Her sisters Myesha, Nasha, and Faith. Her brothers Ahshar, Gabriel, and Nyol. Her cousins Taliyah, Kianah, Kadar, Shar. Her boyfriend Seth. Her best friend and dog Ollie. And many more friends and family.
