

Nathaniel Saye Bailey

December 21, 1962 - October 1, 2020

The late Nathaniel Saye Bailey was born Dec. 21, 1962 unto the union of Ms. Quezokahn Bailey and Louis Bailey in Saclepea Nimba County, Republic of Liberia. The late Nathaniel Saye Bailey is survived by his wife Judy Bailey, siblings, children, grandchildren, relatives, friends and loved ones.

The late Nathaniel Saye Bailey was a 1982 graduate of the Johnny Saye Vockay high school in Saclepea Nimba County. Upon his graduation, Boy Nat, as he was called by many, moved to Monrovia. After years of work to sustain his family, Mr. Bailey was opportune to travel to the United States in 1987 where he lived until his passing.

While in the United States, the late Nathaniel S. Bailey worked with various institutions serving humanity. The late Nathaniel Saye Bailey was a family man. He was loving, caring, and full of life. He never met a stranger as he made quick friends with anyone he met. He loved to travel, make friends and entertain people. He loved laughing and was known as a jokester. Boy Nat, as he was referred to by his sisters, brothers, and even close friends loved to cook or “throw-down” as he would say. Boy Nat always wanted people to know what he was cooking, as such, he would call everyone in his contact to tell them the kind of ingredients or meat, fish in his soup

The late Nathaniel S. Bailey enjoyed listening to music. His favorite was

African music, especially Soukous. The late Nathaniel S. Bailey was friendly, funny, loving, caring, and treated everyone the same regardless of age. His favorite saying was “what so much”. He was easy going and a lover of life. Let us celebrate his home-going, as he was a man full of life, energy, and most of all an entertainer. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in perfect peace until we see him again. Rest in peace. We all miss your smile, fun, cooking, and music.
